Job Duties and Skills:

Description: Temporary, full-time Lobster/Crab Vessel Deckhands needed from July 20, 2021, to April 20, 2022. Deckhands assist other crewmembers in a rotative fashion while fishing for lobsters and/or crabs, using traps/pots made of wood, plastic, and/or other synthetic materials. At the beginning of the season, will load straps and bait into the vessel; tie market float to the line, attach the line to trap; fasten bait inside trap, and lower trap into the water using a hydraulic winch, once loading trap onboard the vessel, deckhand #1 slides lobster from the trap and places it on a conveyor to deckhand #2 who pressure-washes trap using a water hose and removes traps lid. Deckhand #2 takes out legal-size lobster from the trap and places it on a live well or container. Deckhand #2 also breaks off only legal-size claws from the crab. Will toss illegal and undersized lobster overboard. If a trap requires minor repairs, deckhands will repair it on the spot in a manner that does not slow the overall fishing operation. If major repairs are needed, deckhands will set the trap/pot aside and bring it to the dock to be repaired. Deckhands will also secure and remove the vessel's docking lines to and from docks and other vessels. Will put anchors or tow equipment using a hydraulic winch. At the end of the season, deckhands will load traps on vessels and unload them onto the dock by hand or using hoisting equipment. The deckhand will wash the deck, traps, and conveyors using water hoses and assist the captain as required.

Must be able to repeatedly lift, slide and/or stack traps/pots weighing from 30 to 75 pounds up to two (2) meters high. Deckhands convene very early in the morning to be taken to predetermined fishing grounds where traps/pots were dropped at the beginning of the season. Must be willing to work in humid and/or wet conditions within confined spaces.

The rate of pay is $12.97 per hour (Overtime $19.50 per hour) or an average of $160.00 per day, whichever is greater. 40 basic hours of work per week and up to nine (9) overtime hours.

Workers will be paid by check every week or according to the prevailing practice in the area of intended employment (Florida Keys), whichever is more frequent. Employer will make all deductions from the worker's check as required and allowed by law. Employer will use a single workweek as its standard for computing wages due. Advances, pay, and deductions will be reflected in the Statement of Catch given with the check. No education required. No on-the-job training. Applicant MUST HAVE no less than one continuous month of experience as A lobster and crab vessel deckhand on a commercial vessel engaged in fishing for lobster and/crab. The usual work period is from 06:00 am to 3:00 pm.

Employer provides safety gear, tools, supplies, and equipment required to perform the assigned duties as well as food and lodging on the vessel free of charge or deposit. The employer will reimburse the worker for transportation to the job site once the worker completes 50 percent of the work contract period Employer will reimburse the worker in the first workweek for all visa, visa processing, border crossing, and other related fees, including those mandated by the government, incurred by the H-2B worker. The amount for transportation will be computed utilizing the most economical common carrier. Subsistence costs will be paid to workers that complete their contract or are dismissed early by the employer, except when the employer has appropriately reported a worker's voluntary abandonment of employment. Transportation and subsistence rates of $13.97 per day during travel to a maximum of $55.00 per day with receipts. A worker is guaranteed employment for at least two-thirds of the fishing season for the period described above.
